

English/Lit. Class for Struggling Students

Jr. High & High School

Focus: small classes (4-6 students in each class)

- Develop Literary Analysis Skills
- Strengthen Student's Writing Process
- Individualized Homework & Rubrics
- Life Skills of Accountability & "Owning Their Work"

Goals:

- Take each student (at their level), fill in gaps and move forward in strengthening their foundational skills of reading comprehension and writing
- Develop an "I can do attitude" w/each student by breaking down the crucial steps of writing into "doable assignments"
- Fulfill full credit/grade – total parent independence/student accountability

Instructor:	Location of Classes	Day	Cost of Class
Carol Carey HopeEducationalServices@gmail.com	Hooksett, NH	Wednesday	$90 month (Sept-April) (May – no charge)

Credentials and Experience:

- Master's Degree in Learning Disabilities & Behavioral Issues
- Homeschooled 3 Boys K-12 (one with severe L.D. in reading and writing)
- Interventionist and Consultant for Homeschooling and Public School Students
- Homeschool Evaluator (over 18 yrs.)
- References & further details available